ALABAMA REPORTER.

TALLADEGA, ALA.

E. H. CRUIKSHANK, EDITOR.

THURSDAY, Oct., 15, 1863.

☞ President Davis is paying a visit to Gen. Bragg's army near Chattanooga.

☞ We understand that Lieut. McVoy who has been connected with the Camp at this place, fell from the cars at Columbiana depot on Tuesday last and was crushed to death between the cars and the platform.

Yankee accounts say that our cavalry have captured Shelbyville, Tennessee, taken the force stationed there prisoners, and destroyed the Town.

Georgia Election.

Governor Brown has been re-elected by an overwhelming majority to serve for the fourth term as Governor of Georgia.

Hon. Charles Clark has been elected Governor of Mississippi by a very large majority. Such are the indications from the returns so far received.

Cavalry in the rear of Rosecrans.

Our enemy's statements confirm the news previously received with regard to our cavalry being in the rear of Rosecrans' army, we clip the following items from the Atlanta Press dispatches:

The Nashville Press of the 7th says that Wheeler crossed the river at Washington thirteen miles above Chattanooga, last Thursday and passed down the Sequatchie Valley.

The Rebels captured fifty wagons near Anderson's Cross Roads, burning a number of them and killing about three hundred horses and mules. The train was loaded with ammunition, clothing and rations. Forty wagons carrying medical stores and fifty sutlers' teams were also lost.

On Saturday the Rebel cavalry attacked McMinnville, capturing the town garrison, consisting of the Fortieth Tennessee Infantry. The Rebels burned a train of cars, and destroyed the railroad and telegraph.

A special dispatch from Washington to the Herald says that for two months past the question of the settlement of the impending difficulties between the North and South without further bloodshed has been under consideration at Washington and Richmond. The negotiations have not yet reached any definite proposition.

MR. EDITOR:—On East day, 21st August I preached a sermon on the times. Mr. Chas. B. Williams, a stranger here for the purpose of buying wheat on speculation, happened to be present. In the afternoon during my absence at the camp, Mr. Williams came to my house for the purpose, I suppose of taking me to task. He entered into a discussion of my sermon with my wife and other ladies of my household, alleging that my sermon was intended for him.

I took no notice of this conduct of Mr. Williams. A few days after this the first card appeared in your paper. This I should not have noticed had not Mr. W. have informed several gentlemen that it was intended as a REPLY to my sermon. Now Mr. Williams's articles beg the question throughout, his last is no reply to mine—it merely dodges the question.

He refers me to Mr. Bliss; therefore I feel at liberty to say that I believe Mr. Bliss knows what wheat sold at in July as well as any one—he having bought a quantity at $5 per bushel. Williams did the same, and I suspect he bought some as low as $4.

Did Mr. W. sell to two ladies from Mobile 600 lbs of flour at $25 per 100 lbs, made from wheat that cost $5 per bushel? Did that he sacrificed a valuable? would be impressed with the ladies had passing the flour.

When Mr. W. answers these questions without any circumlocution, then the public will know the right and wrong of the matter. I know what I am about.

By dodging the main question Mr. W. in his first article tries to and does prove more than he expected;

1st, That extra flour was gotten up here in July at $24 per bbl.

2nd, That he "only" made "twenty-eight dollars and fifty six cents on a bbl."

Take then his own statement.

Is that extortion or not? Is this a time for a patriot to grind out of the poor $28.56 profit on a bbl of flour? Is it not the duty of the pulpit to "cry aloud and spare not?"

But even these figures were reached by a sophism. I tell the public that somebody made much more than $28.56 profit per bbl?

For wheat at $5 yields flour at 25 to 320 per bbl. Flour did sell in Mobile during the period under review at from $100 to 110 and even $120. Expenses to Mobile about $260.—Mr. W. says my sermon was "coarse &c." I will cite the reader to a portion of it; Psalms 109 13; Isaiah 10-1, Ezekiel 22-12, Matthew 23-25, 1 Corinthians 5-11 and 6-10. These passages from the Holy word of God, forced, I presume the ground work of the coarseness of my sermon!

Since Mr. W. was already under the enunciation of these passages of scripture, I trust he may profit by them in the future and not attempt again to arraign God's ministers for a faithful discharge of his duties to his congregation.

JOS. J. NICHOLSON,
Post Chaplain C. S. A.

P. S. I will add for Mr. W's information that as late as 21st Sept., I know a gentlemen purchased at a mill and of the owner of the mill 75 to 80 bbls of extra flour at $40 per bbl. J. J. N.

OBITUARY.

DIED—on the 10th inst. at his father's residence in this county, ANSEL C. CUNNINGHAM, in the 27th year of his age.

He was one of the noble army of martyrs who have laid down their lives in defence of their country. He entered the service under the late Col. Woodward, then Capt. of the Talladega Blues —was wounded in both arms at the battle of Williamsburg,—returned home for a few weeks, but before his wounds were healed, hurried back to his company just in time to participate in the battles near Richmond. On 27th June at Malvern Hill he was wounded mortally. After lingering three months in Richmond his father succeeded in bringing him home. He was placed upon his couch from which after seven months more of helplessness and pain his Savior came to release him. He was a faithful and devoted son, a good soldier and a lovely and consistent christian. For 10 years he had been a member of the Presbyterian Church. He had much christian peace amid the perturbations of the army and during his long and painful affliction.—All is now well with him forever.

Talladega, Oct. 1863. A. B. M.

OBITUARY.

DIED—at his residence in this County on 4th inst. JOSIAH TERRY, in the 64th year of his age.

Mr. Terry was born in Roane Co., Tenn., but moved in early manhood to N. Ala. where he resided until 1833, when he settled in this County. He was extensively and favorably known, having at one time served the County most faithfully as Sheriff; and will agree that he leaves a reputation for unsullied integrity, large-hearted generosity and kindness, inflexible devotion to his friends, and an affectionate and courteous deportment towards all.

About 15 yrs since he became a member of the Presbyterian Church and was afterward elected a Ruling Elder in the Church of Mardisville. During his long illness he had that strong consolation which is imparted only to the true christian. Our community mourns the death of a good man.
